Foreword

The tide of years
May wash away your memories by the score;
This book a treasure then will be,
Sweet remembrances cherished more and more.

In order that you might recall more clearly your school life, we have, in the following pages, set down the most important and memorable events of 1949-1950 at Weatherwax High.

'Tis often said, "Absence makes the heart grow fonder". So may it be, we hope, with your school memories. May recollections of Weatherwax, someday when you open this book, make your day a little brighter wherever you are.

Dedication

We, the Class of 1950, dedicate our QUINAULT to our athletic director, Edwin "Jud" Graham. We recognize and appreciate his tireless efforts and enthusiastic interest not only in our athletic teams but in the entire student-body.

Jud—as he is affectionately known—completed his undergraduate work at the University of North Dakota and accepted a teaching position in our schools in 1929. Reassigned from the history department in 1937, Jud served as head football coach for two years and has since been actively engaged in the handling of all phases of high school sports—his first love. When it became apparent in 1941 that a special office of athletic director was needed to coordinate the rapidly growing athletic and recreational program within the school system, Jud Graham was the logical man, fully qualified for the post. He has carried the enormous responsibility of this position with calm efficiency while continuing his graduate work at the University of Washington where he received his master's degree in physical education. His genial, easy-going manner coupled with a realistic view of local problems and those of the Washington State Physical Education Association has contributed to his State-wide popularity and recognition.

We sincerely wish Jud's continued success in his new administrative position as principal of the new Robert Gray school, but we will miss him as Athletic Director; however, we are confident of his enthusiastic support on the playing field and within the halls of learning.

Good luck and more power to ya.

The word "senate" means a governing body and that is exactly what we have at Weatherwax —a student government.

Each homeroom elects one senator to represent them for the year. Along with the student body officers, the Board of Control, presidents of both the Boys' Federation and the Council of Girls, one member of the pep staff and Mr. Londahl as advisor, we have the senate.

For this year of 1949-50, our student body officers have been, Dick Solberg, president; Alan McMillan, vice-president; Anne Malinowski, secretary; and Ken Palmer, treasurer.

Every other Wednesday the senate would meet to pass laws, appropriate money and discuss school problems.

This year's senate has been a busy organization with a worker and leader like Dick Solberg as the head.

Class History

Establishing a name for itself, the senior class of 1950 will go down in the annals of Weatherwax High School as record making. Its 203 members were led by Walt Brudvik, president; Tom Raby, vice president; Joan Stevens, secretary; and Charles Vammen, treasurer.

This year has been outstanding in the field of athletics. The teams in all sports have been exceptional and the senior class has contributed many stars. Just a few of them were Bob Crume, Arnold DeHart, Tony Vlastelica, Ken Palmer, Wright Benson, Paddy Burris, Harvey Christiansin, and Tom Raby.

On May 5, the senior play, "You Can't Take It With You," directed by Robert Mayne, was presented to an enthusiastic audience. Colleen Welsh held the lead and, with some of our seasoned actors such a Dick Solberg and Eleanora Ogan, helped make the play a success.

This class was the originator of the division of the Junior-Senior Prom into the Junior Prom and the Senior Ball. On May 19 the seniors held their Senior Ball; President Walt Brudvik was general chairman.

The May Day Dance, sponsored by the Pep Club, was held May 6th. The climax of the evening came with the crowning of the king and queen of the May.

This year Mr. Stensager organized a group of singing seniors, who called themselves the Madrigal Singers. They won a superior rating in Centralia at the soloist and small ensemble meet. The members of this group were: Jean Wolgamott, Jeanette Hall, Nancy Mercier, Gloria Egge, Marlene Briscoe, Mary Ann Bravos, Ted McCarty, Lloyd Rice, Rich Covall and Ricky Kelly.

The senior class speakers were: Marilyn Garner, Valedictorian; Rosemary Lesman and Arlene Haglund, Co-Salutatorians; John Carlson, Class Speaker; and Elmer Wallin, Faculty Speaker.

Art

Art is an elective subject offered to sophomores, juniors, and seniors. Under the instruction and supervision of Miss Hollan, this department consists of three separate courses, beginning art, advanced art, and artcraft. Beginning art teaches the fundamentals of figure drawings, lettering, techniques and perspective. Artcraft consists of leather tooling, carving paper mache, weaving and numerous other activities. Advanced art gives the student an opportunity of choosing the art work he wants to do. Some of these are crafts, exploratory painting, poster work and lettering, and pen and ink drawing. A "must" in advanced art is a portfolio of modern or ancient art.

Library Science

For each period of the day, there is a girl on duty in the library to assist the librarian in her duties. These girls learn all the techniques of library work and earn one credit for each semester. This year the following girls are taking the course: Verna Bebich, Virginia Wilson, Virginia Churchill, Maureen Graves, Agnes Damm and Bonnie Kitner. They are under the guidance of Miss Clayton.

Psychology Panel

A discussion panel consisting of four boys from Mr. Curran's first semester psychology class carried on a clean-up campaign in all the grade schools in the Aberdeen school system. John Carlson, Steve Garner, Walt Brudvik and Richard Covall were helped by Eleanora Ogan, Donna Wood, and Karen Wise.

During their campaign, they took periodic inspections of the grade schools and also brought a panel discussion before the student bodies of Miller Junior High and Weatherwax High School.

Junior Class

The class of 1951 is led by President Paul Karshner. He is assisted by Buddy Pattison, vice president. Nancy Clark serves as both secretary and treasurer.

The outstanding event of every Junior class is the Junior Prom. "A Little Bit of Heaven" was the theme of this successful dance.

The Junior class is probably more famous for its athletics than anything else. It has contributed many fine athletes to our championship teams at Weatherwax.

Talent is always available in the class of "51". Singers such as Jean Taber and Virginia Churchill, bator twirlers such as Carol Nielsen and Gerry Bardy, and our harmonica player, Bob Smith, constitute just a small part of the talented students of this class.

Through all the remaining years of Weatherwax, the class of "51" will always be remembered by everyone who was a part of it, or who was acquainted with it.

The class of '52 entered Weatherwax with an outstanding record and by electing Jim Brennan, Kenny Hoem, and Pat Pinckney class officers, they assured themselves of another successful year. The highlight of this year was the Sophomore Hop, "Spring Daze," presented on March 31 in the Girls' Gym.

Boys' Federation

This year the Boys' Federation has done exceedingly well in performing various duties and arranging numerous activities.

Officiating at the meetings were President Chuck Graham, Vice-President Charles Siljeg, Secretary John Carlson and Treasurer Tom Stengle.

Most of the work carried on by the Boys' Federation was done through the use of organized committees.

The lockers, checkroom, and K. O. B. are all affiliated with the Boys' Fed. Their services are mentioned elsewhere in the Quinault.

Under the direction of Tom Stengle and Norm Bittinger, the concession committee did a grand job of selling confection at the football games. Later on in the year, these boys continued their program at noon and also made popcorn for the Girls' Convention, which was sponsored by the C. O. G.

The football programs, which were exceptionally fine this year, were sponsored by the Boys' Fed. with Chairman Buddy Whiteside heading a large committee.

Elmer Wallin and Bob Rux led the committee which finally succeeded in starting the sportsmanship trophy between Aberdeen and Hoquiam.

The usage of the basketball identification board was well taken care of by Bob Rux, Rich Egner and Terry Brown.

"Fill the Air With Grizzly Hair" was the winning slogan of the annual Thanksgiving Day slogan contest. The winner, Ron Sanford, truly emphasized the job our team did.

Council of Girls

The Council of Girls, a member of the Southwest Washington Girls' League, an organization of all Girls' Clubs in Southwest Washington, began its year of activity with the annual fall mixer for the welcoming of new girls to the Aberdeen school system.

Nancy Hanrahan, president, assisted by Eleanora Ogan, vice president, Gloria Egge, secretary, and Marilyn Garner, treasurer, led the girls through a very successful year climaxed with the traditional spring tea for the graduating seniors and their mothers.

A program of activity and variety is carried on by the C. O. G. throughout the year. The organization lists as one of its main aims to encourage all girl's activities such as G. A. A., Leaderettes, and Pep Club. A committee is always on hand to maintain and care for the lounge and first-aid room. Another committee decorates the building at Christmas and presents a special Christmas program. The locker assignments at the beginning of the year are taken care of by still another committee especially chosen for that purpose. Other girls have an opportunity to assist with weekly teas for the faculty members.

Any girl in high school may serve on a committee of her own choosing by merely signing up for it at the beginning of the year. If the girl remains active and interested, her work will merit her five activity points.

Chairmen of the committees during the past year were: Locker, Lee Ann Fields; Welfare, Donna McClellan; Friendly, Rosemary Lesman; Big and Little Sister, Nancy Clark; Program, Eleanora Ogan; Lounge, Jeanette Hall; Art and Display, Barbara Espedal, and Social, Darlene Duncan.

This year we were also fortunate in having the Southwest Washington Girls' Conference in Aberdeen, April 1, at which Eleanora Ogan, vice president of our Girls' club, presides as president after having been elected last year.

Annually presented, recording all facts, folks and fun pertaining to Aberdeen High School, the Quinault is the result of the whole staff plus the always hard-working, yet underestimated "odd-jobbers," whose services are invaluable.

Ted Kuprewicz, always on the job taking pictures, deserves much recognition.

Heads of staffs were: Charlotte Chamberlain, ad staff; Janet Christensen, business manager; Elmer Wallin, sports editor; Collin Ingram and Lester Johnson, art staff.

The whole staff was under the able supervision of Peter Londahl.

Week at Weatherwax, Football '49, and Bobcat Basketball were some of the new services rendered to high school students this year by the Ocean Breeze staff.

Broadening their scope to include public relations as well as newspaper publishing, the journalism class did much to publicize student activities among townspeople by the weekly column in the Aberdeen World by Elmer Wallin, who also edited the press booklet, "Football '49," and "Bobcat Basketball," edited by John Carlson of the O. B. sports department. Further recognition was given to the classes activities by Elmer Wallin's weekly column in the Grays Harbor Post.

PEP STAFF

In addition to the comely skirts and sweaters usually worn by our attractive song queens, they changed styles by wearing pedal pushers at rallies and jerkins and blouses during the successful basketball campaign. The yell staff made some changes too. They wore navy blue trousers and sweaters with yellow trimmings. For the first time in several years, the kings and queens had the same color of blue and gold. The change in style was noticed and appreciated by all.

Something really different was the fact that there were five juniors and only two seniors. The seniors were two of the song queens, Nikki Christiansen and Sally Rose. The juniors included the other song queens, Skooter Fairbairn and Carol Nielsen, and the three yell leaders, Bernard Johnson, king, Dennis Prather and Bob Munro, dukes.

The pepsters kept themselves busy working up new routines, presenting skits and planning rallies. They won and enforced the football challenge.

At the state tournament the girls were praised on their peppy routines.

Honor Society

Another very successful year of the Honor Society has come to an end. This year the Society boasts a membership of 86. There are 19 seniors, 17 juniors and 50 sophomores.

Each member has a pin to signify his membership in the Society. The sophomores wear a rectangular shaped pin with one gold bar on a blue background; the juniors wear a pin with two gold bars on a blue background; and the seniors wear a torch pin to signify their membership. At graduation each senior member receives a National Honor Society torch pin.

This year the Honor Society chose as its project the editing and printing of a handbook. The handbook contains information of school activities, subjects offered, rules and regulations of the school and much other information which will prove valuable to the students, especially incoming sophomores and students new to Weatherwax. The Honor Society also took charge of the Weatherwax High radio program on KBKW, January 5. A committee under the direction of Mr. Hill revised the activity point system.

To become a member in the Honor Society one must maintain a "B" average and earn 15 activity points each semester. A students eligibility is also based on leadership, citizenship, and character.

Those who did their share to make the Honor Society a success this year were Elmer Wallin, president; Greta Anderson, vice-president; Ann Hobi, secretary, and Elwood Hogan, treasurer. Miss Gwin and Mr. Hill were the advisors for the Society.

Pep Club

Under the leadership of Miss Gladys Shindler, the Pep Club has had one of its most active years.

The Pep Club, with its membership of 125 girls, was present at the football and basketball games. They also sold pom-poms at the games.

They had many projects during the year. Their first project was the Thanksgiving Day assembly. On March 8, at the "Y" they gave the A and B squad basketball teams a banquet.

Before the games, the girls made signs and posted them in the halls to pep up the school's spirit.

The May Day Dance was held on May 5 at the Miller Natatorium.

Officers for 1949-50 were president, Nikki Christiansen; vice president, Bonnie Woolf; secretary, Colleen Hanrahan; and treasurer, Emmy Lou Randich.

Comptroller's Office

This year the comptroller's office staff, under the capable direction of Mr. Bartine, again took over all financial arrangements for the school's activities. Not only tickets for various functions, but also school supplies are sold here.

This year the staff consists of Ken Palmer, treasurer; Pat Hays and Lois Reuther, tax clerks; Mary Linnenkohl, cashier, and Carolyn Schmidt, Rosemary Lesman, and Virginia Cooper, bookkeepers.

Other members actively engaged in office training are Darlene Young, Lenore Lundgren, Larry Nicholson, Delores Drawski, Marie Espedal, Jackie Dionne, Norma Knight, Ruth Henry and Phyllis Gillette.

Ticket Takers and Sellers

One of the thankless jobs around school is that of the Ticket Takers and Sellers. Their work is to sell and take tickets at all of the home games, plays, and dances.

This year there are fifteen members in the organization under the supervision of Mr. Bartine.

They are entitled to wear sweaters with their emblem on them and one stripe for each year of service.

Special Service Officers

The general responsibilities of the special service officers are to boost the sale of student body cards, take care of the Quinault subscriptions, control ticket sales in home rooms, and collect charitable donations by students to civic groups bettering our community.

These representatives are chosen by their home rooms, and represent their home rooms at the business meetings. They are directed by Mr. Bartine.

K. O. B.

Consisting of 21 members, the K. O. B. is a very active and helpful group around the school.

This year saw the strengthening of the club by the addition of twelve new sophomore members and the able guidance of Mr. Harold Smith, advisor and newcomer to the faculty.

The purpose of this organization is to maintain order at all athletic contests and other school functions where they are needed.

An impressive initiation was held March 24, at the new YMCA building. In the latter part of May, the annual swimming party and picnic was held in honor of all members.

Checkroom

The duties of the check room staff are to check coats, P. E. equipment and umbrellas, and see that they are properly taken care of. They also have to repair broken hangers, and replace lost checks. The check room charges ten cents for broken tags and for equipment left over night to pay for the cost of having new hangers and tags made.

Lockers

Every day we pass the boys on locker duty unnoticed, not realizing the grand job they do for all the boys in Weatherwax High

The members of this group include four seniors, Melvin Loomis, Jerry Simon, Bob McInnis, Bill Pierce; three junior, Jim Hutchinson, Louis Snyder, and Bill Peterson four sophomores, Tom Chadwick, Don Kudacheck, Terry Graves, and George Morff. The advisor for these boys is Mr. Curran.

Office Staff

The office staff this year is under the capable direction of Mrs. Norin. It consists of eighteen girls, three during each period and one during home room period.

The duty of these girls is to collect attendance. Two girls perform this duty, with one girl collecting the attendance in the building and one girl collecting from classes outside the building. The third girl does the filing and watches the switchboard.

There are sixteen girls taking office for the first time, and four are taking it for the second year.

This practice enables them to understand the "goings-on" of an office, if they later choose office work as their profession.

They receive one office credit a semester for the course.

Lounge Committee

Every period of every day there is a girl on duty in the Girls' Lounge. Duties consist of acting as hostesses for new girls and visitors and performing many small tasks in the way of keeping the lounge neat, clean and useful.

This year's members include Jeanette Hall, chairman; Violet Stolp, Dorothy Secor, Grace Zembal, Georgia Hunter, Deloras Arnold and Sharon King.

Leaderettes

The Leaderettes are the girls in the blue and gold jackets, gold blouses, and navy skirts that usher at all school functions and various outside activities.

Retiring at the semester were president, Eleanora Ogan; vice president, Nancy Hanrahan; and secretary, Karen Wise. During the second semester the leadership was passed on to Nancy Clark, president; Darlene McMillan, vice president; and Emmy Lou Randich, secretary.

At the semester sophomores were admitted and the following senior girls were retired after three years of faithful service to the school: Charlotte Chamberlin, Pat Lawrence, Nancy Hanrahan, Diane Lenahan, Marilyn Johnson, Barbara Espedal, Nancy Mercier, Anne Malinowski, Ruth Manley, Eleanora Ogan, and Karen Wise. The group is under the direction of Miss Jane Huntzicker.

Spanish Club

The purpose of the Spanish Club is to study about Spanish people, their customs, and their language. They even celebrate some of the holidays as the Spanish do. This year the club has entered such activities as having a Christmas banquet in Spanish style and a spring banquet.

Later the club presented a few radio programs describing the life and customs of the Spaniard.

This year's officers were Kenny Hoem, president; Shirleyan Rainey, vice president; Jean Williams, secretary; and Mary May Bourke, treasurer.

Latin Club

The purpose of the Latin Club is to teach Latin in a more entertaining way.

Some of the various activities the Club sponsored were: a balloon sale, a dance, candy sales, and the annual Roman Banquet.

This year it was voted that former members of the club could retain their membership.

One particular project which the club took up was making a calendar in Latin.

Officers for the year were Dennis Prather, consul; Pat Turska, vice consul; Patsy Scure, scriba, and Jim Brennan, quaestor.

Stagecrew

The stage crew, headed by Mr. Mayne, has completed a very successful and efficient year.

The captain is Jean Embry and the crew consists of Lee Elmgren, Tom Chadwick, Steve Hill, Lee Friedlander and Bob Presnell.

The work consists of constructing play sets, and handling lights and curtains backstage.

Tri-Hi-Y I

This year Tri-Hi-Y I was under the capable leadership of Nancy Mercier and Nikki Christiansen, presidents, with Miss Ruby Lyse, advisor. This service organization presented a needy family with a basket of food at Thanksgiving and sponsored several dances and bake sales. On March 30, the club held the annual banquet for the swimming team.

Nikki Christiansen was Tri-Hi-Y I's representative at the Youth Legislature in Olympia.

The big project of the year was the pre-summer style show sponsored by the club under the direction of the George J. Wolff Co. All the girls worked hard to make this a success.

Tri-Hi-Y II

Tri-Hi-Y II completed a very successful year. Its members were active in many school projects and functions. Their main project this year was the navy blue felt blanket with "Aberdeen" written in gold. This was presented to Coach Eddie Smith and the team in the beginning of basketball season. Beside this project the members held bake sales, sponsored dances at the "Y", held joint meetings with other "Y" groups and had a football raffle during the "A" club dance. Joan Stevens and Charlotte Chamberlin were their two representatives to the model legislature in Olympia. The new officers were: president, Pat Lawrence; vice president, Karen Wise; secretary, Scooter Fairbairn; treasurer, Sally Rose; reporter, Linda Wirkkala; chaplain, Joan Stevens. The officers during first semester were: president, Arlene Haglund; vice president, Molly Middleton; secretary, Barbara Yarrow; treasurer, Diane Lenahan; reporter, Charlotte Chamberlin; chaplain, Karen Wise.

Tri-Hi-Y III

Tri-Hi-Y III started the year by initiating new members and installing officers. They were handicapped at the first of the year by the lack of an advisor, but later in the school year were favored by the able leadership of Mrs. G. E. Olson.

During the year they had a bake sale, book drive and a dance. At the beginning of second semester, officers were installed in a joint meeting with the other two Tri-Y's. Willow Dean Kretz attended the model youth legislative and the first semester officers attended the officers' training conference in Longview.

Golden "A" Club

One of the most active organizations at Weatherwax High this year has been the Golden "A" Club. A full year of activities kept members and officers busy continuously.

This year-around program included two successful dances, the annual Dad's night, a formal initiation, and the spring picnic. The Golden "A" Club also helps control automobile traffic and takes part in cleaning the lawns.

This year's group was directed by advisor, Norman Newman; president, John Carlson; vice president, Bob Crume; secretary, Dave Lundgren; treasurer, Chuck Graham; and sergeant-at-arms, Vic Korpi.

Hi-Y I

Hi-Y Chapter I, with Mr. Norman Newman as their advisor, enjoyed a very successful year of service to the community and school.

This year two formal initiations were carried out by a serious candlelight ceremony.

The Southwest Washington Hi-Y Conference was held in Aberdeen and all of the club's officers attended the conference. Bud Whiteside represented this Hi-Y Chapter at the Model Youth Legislature in Olympia this spring.

A few of the activities of the club this year were generous contributions to charities and donations of food baskets to a needy family during Christmas time. They also sponsored several dances.

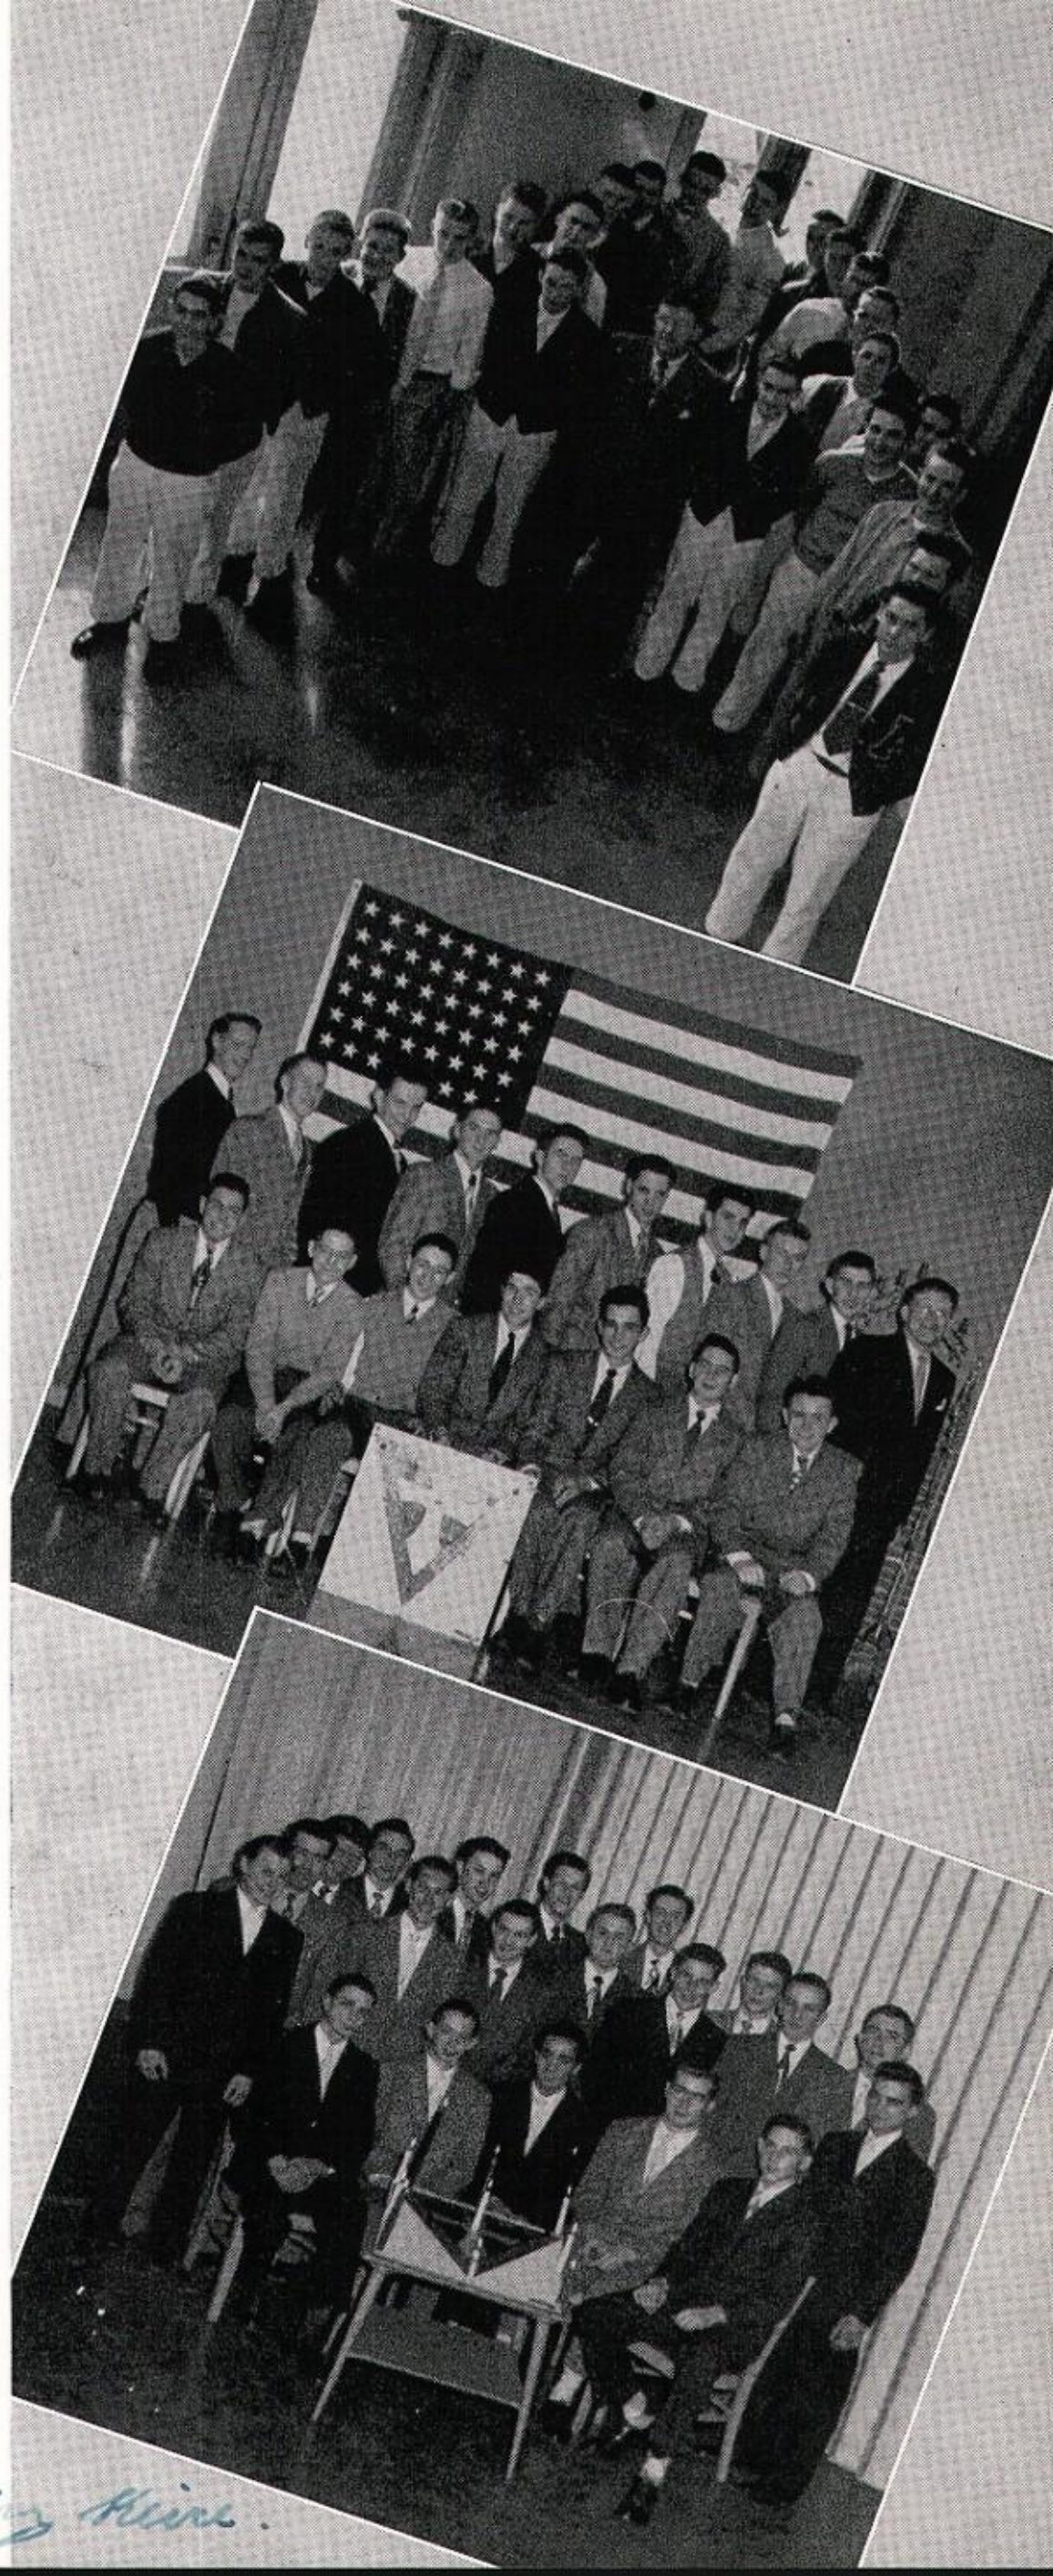
Officers serving for 1949-50 were Chuck Vammen, president; Gordon Brown, vice-president; Bud Whiteside, secretary; Vic Korpi, treasurer; Paul Karshner, chaplain; and Ken Palmer, sergeant-at-arms.

Hi-Y II

An active group of efficient students led Hi-Y II to a very successful year in Weatherwax social life. Its reputation was increased this year as the club enfolded a complete schedule of enjoyable events.

Dances and joint meetings took up most of the year while much attention was given to the care of the school lawn. In March, the Hi-Y club held its formal initiation. Later followed the legislature in Olympia, with Dick Easter and Warren Spangler as their representatives. In the field of sports, the annual inspirational award for swimming was sponsored by the club.

Acting as advisor was Mr. Peter Londahl, Officers included President Dick Solberg, Vice President Bob Crume, Secretary John Carlson, Treasurer Larry Easter, Chaplain Dick Easter, and Sergeant-at-Arms Gordon Fleming.



Retail Selling

The Weatherwax Retailing Class of 1949-50 did the right thing when they elected Shirley Silva as their state representative. Shirley came back from the representatives' meeting as state treasurer. She has been kept busy all year long.

The club as a whole has had several social functions this year. Fred Holland led the way the first semester as president. Assisting him were Dale Lutton, vice president; Carolyn Dye, secretary; George Vlastelica, treasurer; Barbara Seyler, representative; and Mary Lane, senator.

Second semester officers were Carolyn Dye, president; Laverna Cochrane, vice president; Mary Lane, secretary; Gracie Williams, treasurer; Barbara Seyler, re-elected reporter; and Vernalee Collar, senator.

Projection Crew

The projection committee, under the able direction of Mr. Kinnaman, advisor, Andy LaLande, and Don Wertanen, has had a very successful year.

The regular duties of the committee are showing all the classroom movies and running the microphone, spotlight, and projector in the auditorium for assemblies. Extra activities of the committee this year have been showing movies for P.-T. A., running the spotlight, and playing records for high school and college plays and for the Grays Harbor Symphony Concerts. The committee also played Christmas records between classes the week before Christmas vacation. The annual picnic was held the last week of school.

Quill and Scroll

Quill and Scroll is an honorary society for students who have made accomplishments in the field of journalism. They have remained inactive this year but plan to revive the Madge Finley Memorial Chapter next year.

This organization comprises the students on the Ocean Breeze and Quinault staffs who have worked up to the society's standards.

Homecoming

During the football season, when Aberdeen and Hoquiam clashed for the annual Thanksgiving Day game, our school acted as host to alumni for the Homecoming, held every year that the contest is played on home soil.

This year the big event was planned, scheduled, and carried out with all the trimmings, a queen and court, rallies, assemblies and a dance.

Nancy Hanrahan reigned as queen with Joan "Nikki" Christiansen and Eleanora Ogan completing the royal court.

The Stewart Field's "50" yard line was the scene of the crowning of the queen. During half time of the Thanksgiving Classic, the court was driven once around the track in convertible cars and then returned to the platform in front of the grandstand.

Mayor Ed Lundgren placed the gold crown on the queen's head and presented the sceptre as a symbol of her reign. Patricia Curran carried the crown. Acting as master of ceremonies was Harvey Christiansin. He also assisted in presenting gifts to the winsome trio.

Winding up the festivities was an alumni dance held in the armory. Supplying the music for the promenade was Frankie Roth and his musicians, a famed band from the Seattle area. The gym was decorated to give a "fall season" effect. In the evening a recornation of the queen took place with Principal R. R. Balkema presenting the crown.

Gifts and flowers were presented to the queen and court from leading Aberdeen stores, along with a handmade sceptre for the queen on which her name was engraved.

The preparation for the Homecoming took much hard work and time. A few girls were in town during their session period at the alumni booths. The following students worked on the committee: Charles Vammen, Nancy Mercier, Linda Wirkkala, Barbara Walczyk, Joanne Markich, Walter Brennan, Kathy Augeres, Ellen Ohls, Lou Ann Johnson, Gloria Acker, Nancy Clark, Janet Christensen, Pat Turska, Rusty Thygeson, Buddy Whiteside, Jack Glasgo.

This school year the Weatherwax High School Band, directed by Mr. Donald McCaw, has presented varied programs to school and civic audiences.

As usual, the band was on hand at all home football games. The Bobcat pep band had new uniforms—navy blue sweaters with gold emblems.

Much of the credit for the band's attainment is due to the superb directing of Mr. McCaw, Aberdeen music supervisor. His masterful direction and individual instruction has led this organization to the top of the district's musical world. A well-organized set of student officers deserve credit also. Chuck Graham was this year's band president, and Richard Bozak understudied Mr. McCaw as student director Ron Druet was drum major; Robert Randall served as librarian; Ed McManemy, John Apple, Don Windell, and Fred Hillier were class representatives; John Marvin was uniform manager with John Apple and John Campbell serving as his assistants.

Through the excellent work and co-operation of the civic groups in the city, it was possible for Aberdeen to be present at the State Basketball Tournament at Seattle. Our musicians were worthy representatives of our school and the city, and won the admiration and respect of basketball fans throughout the state.

Through the efforts of its very capable director, Mr. Don McCaw, this year's Weatherwax orchestra has developed into one of the finest high school orchestras Aberdeen has had in many years.

Getting into the swing of things on January 25, with such popular numbers as "Again" and "Body and Soul", the group made a big hit with all those attending the annual swing concert. The favorite, "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes", the rousing "French Military Marching Song", "Rose Marie", and "Hill Billy", a selection on the novelty side, were also included on the program.

A program presented for a Lions Club luncheon was also among this season's appearances.

At this year's music meet, which was held in Olympia, April 15, the orchestra played "Beautiful Galathea", for full orchestra, and "Heart Wounds", for the string section alone.

Several of the members have been privileged to play in the Grays Harbor Symphony, which has given them much valuable experience. Among these are five girls, who have formed the Weatherwax String Quintet. This group—composed of Marilyn Garner and Helen Rotous, violins; Rosemary Lee, viola; Ruth Kocher, cello; and Greta Anderson, bass—has played for many events at school, and in the community.

The officers for this year were: Greta Anderson, president; Larry Easter, vice president; Cordelia Rotous, secretary-treasurer; and Joan Rogers, junior high school representative.

Directing the choir in many successful performances this year was Mr. Eugene Stensager. The most outstanding number presented by the group of 65 voices this year was the Fred Waring arrangement of "The Song of Christmas", a story of the Nativity, which was sung in the Christmas assembly and also for many local organizations during the holiday season. The choir was also featured in the Swing and Spring concerts and in various assemblies during the year. They participated as a class "A" school at the music meet held in Olympia this year.

Presiding over the choir as president was Jim Robeck. Other officers were Rich Covall, vice president; Greta Anderson, secretary-treasurer; robe managers, Anne Malinowski and Gloria Egge; Section leaders were Nancy Clark, soprano; Mary Ann Bravos, alto; Ricky Kelly, tenor; Dan Ball, bass.

Something new added to the music department this year was the Madrigal Singers. This group performed for many clubs and organizations. They received a superior rating at the solo meet. Football

Coming within two points of being the S. W. Washington champions, the Erv Pitts and Norm Newman coached Aberdeen Bobcat gridders could rightfully say at the season's close, "We've had a good year."

Aberdeen's Big Gold opened its season against the Chehalis Bearcats, winning easily 21-6. Both teams had the 'big game' jitters in Tacoma's Lincoln Bowl as the 'Cats lost their second contest.

The Blue and Gold opened conference play at Vancouver where Lady Luck turned against them for the first time and the Trappers came out on the long end of an 18-13 score. Vancouver opened the scoring the first time they got the ball. Dick Moore, speedster halfback, rambled 67 yards off left tackle to put the Trappers on the score board. The 'Cats came right back with a 60 yard drive the paydirt and Kenny Palmer's conversion put the Gold ahead, 7-6. Vancouver scored on a Q. B. sneak after blocking an Aberdeen punt. Gene Wilson, 'Cat halfback, put the Gold ahead again, 13-12, when he boomed across on a quick-opener to climax a 95 yard drive. Here Lady Luck intervened when a fleet Vancouver back scooted off the 'Cats left tackle for a 67 yard touchdown to ice the game for the Trappers.

The Pittsmen produced three wins in as many weeks, beating Centralia, Kelso, and Longview by a 30-0, 13-6 and 20 to 0 scores.

Armistice Day proved to be a heart-breaker for the 'Cats. The undefeated and league leading Olympia Bears handed the Bobcat gridders their bitterest, hardest-fought defeat of the year and capsized the big Gold's hopes of riding the victory boat to the league title. Two evenly matched elevens battled into the fourth quarter, matching touchdown for touchdown. But at the cross-bars Aberdeen batted .500 while the Bears hit a cool 1.000 and that was the game. Two missed conversions gave the game and the league crown to Olympia, 28-26.

Aberdeen, fired and confident, made it a clean sweep over the Hoquiam Grizzlies on Thanksgiving after having downed them 7-0 in the Jamboree. The Bobcat win broke the Stewart's Field victory jinx that began in 1935.

Aberdeen's first score came after the wet pigskin slid off the side of the Hoquiam punter's foot and was recovered by the 'Cats. Bob Smith powered over from the 5 and the conversion failed. The Grizzlies' lone tally came at the end of the third period when they intercepted a 'Cat pass and made it pay off a few plays later on an end-around. Fullback Orbrey Wieland converted to put Hoquiam ahead 7-6.

Aberdeen's break came soon afterward when a hard-charging Gold lineman hit the Grizzly quarterback hard as he was pitching out and the wildly bounding ball was recovered by Aberdeen tackle Gordon Fleming. In exactly five plays Smith plowed into paydirt and iced the game for the 'Cats, 12-7. The conversion failed.

The two touchdowns he scored in the Thanksgiving game made Bob Smith the highest scoring backfieldman in the conference and won him the all-conference fullback position. Guard Elmer Wallin and tackle Bob Crume shared with Smith the all-conference rating, with Crume placing on the all-state team.

For the second straight year Coach Eddie Smith led his Bobcats to the State High School basketball tournament in Seattle. The 'Cats finished third in a field of the 16 best teams in the state.

The Bobcats opened the season against Lincoln of Tacoma and the Blue and Gold cagers came out on the short end of a 48-46 count. When season play started, the 'Cats defeated everyone in the newly revised Northern division twice, except the Hoquiam Grizzlies.

Capturing the first game of two inter-city clashes, the 'Cats lost a thriller-diller to the Grizzlies in a 46-44 overtime game in their next encounter. The Bobcats had nothing to be ashamed of as they came from behind to send the game into overtime.

In a very strange coincidence the 'Cats again met the Bremerton Wildcats in their first game at the tournament this year. A big fourth quarter spurt put the Aberdeen team ahead 57-45 when the gun sounded. Tony Vlastelica set a new one game scoring record with 34 points.

For their second game in the big city, Aberdeen drew Highline of Seattle. Triumphing 56-35, the Bobcats showed a lot of spirit and hustle. Dave Randich was the spark that night, hawking the ball several times.

In their third game, the Bobcats played what many people thought was the championship game. Their opponent was the Lincoln Lynx of Seattle. The Bobcats showed signs of nervousness and lost to the Lynx 39-38 before a standing crowd of 12,000 fans. The Bobcats won out 40-36 in a very exciting game with Clarkston. As is the Smith system, the Aberdeen team employed a tight zone defense throughout the season. The Bobcat offense was built around high-scoring Tony Vlastelica.

At the end of the tournament, Vlastelica was named All-State center while Ken Palmer placed on the All-State third team. Jim Robeck received honorable mention for his fine backboard work.

Next year the 'Cats will have three returning lettermen in Gordon Brown, Rich Rasanen, and Bob Fisher, but will miss the inspired playing of Vlastelica, Palmer, Walt Brudvik, Dave Randich, George Vlastelica, Larry Nicholson, Jim Robeck, and Milt Lawson.

B Squad Football

This year Coach Walt Miller and Al Bivens had a fair ball club. The "B" boys played heads-up ball and always gave their all whether they won or lost.

The first game was lost to Moclips. After a shaky start, the "B" squad took on the Hoquiam B squad to lose another hard-fought game 12 to 0.

Another game with Moclips ended with the score 33 to 0 in favor of the Moclips eleven. Ocosta dropped the B aggregation 19 to 0, but the Bobcats came back to tie Olympia 14 to 14.

B Squad Basketball

After a slow start, the "B" squad, tutored by George Palo, came along fast and finished strong claiming undisputed second place in the conference standings. Individual improvement coupled with superb teamwork featured this rise during the season.

Eight juniors—Jerry Smith, Glen Best, Paul Karshner, Bob Munro, Harold Bergstrom, Rusty Thygeson, Buddy Pattison and Don Evenson—and five sophomores—Fred Puljan, Don Smith, Ed Hardenbrook, Dale Kok and Joe Majar—are the players who made up the winning combinations.

The "B" squad plays preliminary to the "A" squad games with opposition furnished from regular conference schools. From this group of boys will emerge our varsity teams of '51 and '52; we are confident they will carry on in the best Bobcat tradition.

Baseball

With Jupe Pluvius treating the Harbor to a terrific helping of mist, haze, and good old fashioned rain, monsoon style, the Bobcat diamond nine with Coach Pop Miller at the helm, had played only half of their schedule at the time the Quinault went to press. But with an eye out for the perennial dark horse, the Bobcats seemed to be prohibitive favorites to win their second straight league title.

Last year the nine, composed of mostly juniors and steadied by a few seniors, swept to the championship and, with those same juniors back as experienced seniors, it appeared at the time of this writing that the combination was back to its winning ways. To quote Mentor Miller, "It'll take a darn good team to beat us out of the title."

The mound-staff was anchored by veteran hurler Tom Raby who twirled a no-hit, no-run and a one-hit game last year and who, as the Quinault went to press, already had another no-run, a one-hit, and a four-hitter to his credit. Also receiving starting assignments were Larry Nicholson, Harold Bergstrom, and sophomore Fred Puljan. Most of the catching chores were ably handled by "Ironman" Arnold DeHart.

Around the bases it was Joe Majar, first; Robbie Peltola, second; Don Smith, third. Peltola replaced veteran senior Ken Palmer at the keystone after Palmer injured his knee in one of the early games. Walt Brudvik, the only senior in the infield combination, used his two previous years of varsity experience to back up the underclassmen from his short stop position.

Other seniors on the squad who saw considerable relief duty were Neal Lindholm, Johnny Moody, and Melvin Peterson, all outfielders.

Record shattering marks and upset performances seemed to be the main course on the menu of the 1950 version of the Bobcat cinder squad. The Al Bivens coached tracksters swept to a very successful season, placing second behind the Hoquiam Grizzlies in the county meet and again in the district meet at Olympia, were runner-ups to the Grizzly, this time in a tie with Olympia and Kelso.

The thin clads opened their season with a meet with Auburn at the Puyallup field, winning in a breeze, 74½ to 38½. The next week Valley and South Bend bowed to the 'Cat power, the final tally being a full 66 points to the favor of Aberdeen. During the following two weeks they dropped a close count to Bremerton, 58⅓ - 54⅔, and scrubbed the Olympia Bears 66 - 47 in the wettest meet of the season. In the final dual meet of the year, the Hoquiam Grizzlies copped the final couple of events to swing the final count in their favor, 67⅔ - 47⅓.

Although the 'Cats finished second to the Grizzlies at the annual county meet, eleven Aberdeen boys qualified for the district meet held at Olympia. Chuck Graham came out of the Olympia affair with the only first and was the only 'Cat to qualify for the annual state meet at Pullman.

In the record department, Dave Lundgren started things with a 49′ - 4″ peg in the shot to break the old mark by a little less than a foot. Dick Brown, junior miler, toured the distance in 4:37 for another record, and Graham and Rusty Thygeson combined to shatter the old high jumping record with Graham emerging top-dog with a leap of 5′ - 11″. The final meet of the year—the district tournament—saw the relay team of Carlson, Carson, Anderson, and VanderVeer clip one-tenth of a second off the old relay mark to bring the season to a fitting climax.

Swimming

Despite the loss of eight lettermen, members of last year's state championship team, the Aberdeen swimming team chaulked up a third place at the state meet in Seattle. Led by Coach Bus Fairbairn, Captain Paddy Burris, and recordbreaker, Wright Benson, the Bobcats splashed to within four points of taking the state meet.

In pre-season meets, the team lost to Longview, the Seattle Y. M. C. A., the W. S. C. Frosh, and the University of Washington Frosh, but in the regular season the Aberdeen mermen won four and lost three.

During the season Wright Benson broke three records—the 100 yard freestyle (short pool) in 57:3 seconds, and the 50 yard and 200 yard freestyle at the state meet in 24:5 seconds and 2 minutes 13.6 seconds respectively. Last year he was also on the record breaking 200 yard relay team.

The outlook for next year is good with some very promising juniors and sophomores coming up; but the loss of this year's seniors will be greatly felt. The graduating seniors are Wright Benson, Paddy Burris, Harvey Christiansin, Chuck Graham, Rich Snavely, Ricky Kelly, Victor Korpi, and Ed Hamal.

Tennis

With the loss of only two seniors, who were not among last year's first five ranking players, this year's tennis team got off to an excellent start by downing Shelton 4-1, Port Angeles 6-1, Olympia 3-2 and 3-2, and Elma 5-0. Matches with Longview, Shelton and Tacoma were cancelled because of rain.

The Bobcat netmen are favored heavily to take the title again this year, as the other chief contender was Olympia, who they have already played and defeated.

This year's team is an exceptionally well balanced one, with the first three ranking players of almost equal caliber.

The first three positions have fluctuated among Dick Solberg, Bernard Espedal, and Richard Rasanen. Dick and Bernard are the only seniors on this year's squad.

Other players on the traveling squad are: Martin Graves, Paul Karshner, Larry Easter, Jim Brennan, and Sandy Cole. The last two boys named are sophomores, and very promising prospects for the next two years teams.

Altogether, there are more than fifteen boys turning out and it looks as if Aberdeen will retain the Southwest Washington Tennis Championship as they have for the past three years.

Golf

Coach William Mape's golf team has completed another season of golf. This season has not been too successful but it was improving towards the end of the season.

The members of the team met every Monday at the Grays Harbor Country Club to compete for positions on a five-man squad. The matches were usually played on Mondays after school or early Saturday morning.

After golf season is over, the members of the team compete against each other to decide whose name will be engraved on the plaque donated by the Kiwanis Club. There is also an individual cup for the winner donated by Hobby Lobby.

Lettermen on this year's squad were: Chuck Vammen, two-year letterman, and Ken Wambolt, two-year letterman. Other members on the squad were Dick Scroggs, Norman Wall, Bob McAllister, Darrell Kretz, Jerry Smith, Glen DeLaMater, Sterling Cherry, Terry Dennison, and Bud Redifer.

Rifle Club

The rifle club has had a very active year, participating in eight N. R. A. postal matches, in which they came out third in the state.

In addition to this, the club traveled twice to Tacoma, to shoot in the Tacoma sectional match, in which the team came in second place, and to shoot in the Tacoma high school league championship match.

The girls' team, coached by Mrs. Charles Allburty, new assistant coach, swept to fame by taking first place in the state postal matches, and first place at Tacoma.

Ed Greeno, outstanding rifleman, also took the sweepstakes in the individual match at Tacoma by coming in second out of 150 shooters.

This year's officers were Ralph Bache, president; Ronald Novak, vice-president; Molly Rehm, secretary; Donna Wood, treasurer; Ed Greeno, range officer.

Most important in the field of sport's organizations for girls around Weatherwax, is the Girls' Athletic Association.

The group is the oldest girls' organization in existance at school. This year there were nearly a hundred girls in the club.

These girls hold tournaments in foul shooting, ping pong, basketball, volleyball and baseball. They also sell candy every noon in the main hall. The money made through candy sales is used to finance all of the activities of the club.

Pat Fullerton weilds the gavel at all the meetings. Karen Wise is vice president, Rosemary Lesman is secretary-treasurer and Janet Christensen is reporter. Mrs. Fenenga is the faculty advisor.

This year the girls' tennis team elected Pat Fullerton and Jean Williams as co-captains. The girls have won the championship for the last three years. In the tournament is Shelton, Longview, Elma, Centralia, and Port Angeles. Miss Hebert is their advisor.

Pat Fullerton, who plays first singles and first doubles, has been undefeated in her three years on the team. Jeanie Williams has played second singles and second doubles for two years. Pat Lawrence or Karen Wise plays with her. Third singles is played by Marjorie Zink. Karen Wise has played first doubles for two years and has been unbeaten so far.

Sharon King, a sophomore, has played in several meets as third or fourth singles girl. The team will lose three seniors this year. They are Pat Fullerton, Karen Wise, and Pat Lawrence.

With twenty-three girls entering the only three places to be won, the foul shooting contest was a huge success this year. The girls who entered: Lorraine Barton, Arlene Young, Billie Fairbairn, Beverly Brown, Hallie Krogstad, Yvonne Williams, Elsie Krogstad, Shirley McGee, Jean Lukin, Marilyn Burger, Delores Young, Joan Forest, Doreen Syler, Sheila Smith, Mary Linnenkohl, Charlene Franko, Joan Johnson, and Martha Shearer.

The winners of the girls' foul shooting were: 1st place, Barbara Pugh; 2nd place, Mary Lou Boerner; 3rd place, Ann Partridge.

Charlene Franko and Pat Fullerton won the championship badminton.
